

Appendix 1: Psychiatric Nurse Job Stressor Scale supplemental version (PNJSS supplemental version).

These questions ask about your present psychiatry department work. Please make a circle ○ on the place on the line that best matches your response.

Question items	Not at all	Yes
1. I feel that it is difficult to predict the future of patients.
2. I feel that I sometimes have trouble making decisions when providing Psychiatric nursing care.
3. I feel that it is difficult to determine the symptoms and recovery process of patients.
4. I feel that symptoms from which patients recover tend to recur.
5. I feel that I am bothered by the smell of the ward.
6. I feel that my ward is clean. †
7. I think my ward is cramped.
8. I feel that I worry about the possibility of suicide and self-inflicted injury in patients.
9. I feel that there are psychological burdens concerning the possibility of a medical accident.
10. I feel that I worry about patients' behaviors (impulsive actions, leaving the hospital without authorization).

† Reveral item

First subscale: Difficulty of foreseeing the future of psychiatric patients: 4 items (No. 1-4)

Second subscale: Physical environment of the Psychiatric ward: 3 items (No. 5-7)

Third subscale: Medical accident of psychiatric patients: 3 items (No. 8-10)

Total 10 items